

Sewing 101

Sewing 101 is a class for beginners and those who have not been sewing for awhile. The class is suitable for teenagers aged sixteen and up, boys and girls, as well as, adults.

Come to meet new friends as you learn new skills. Supplies are provided for making small, popular projects, including tote bags, cell phone covers, aprons, or doll clothes.

You can learn:

- How to shop for fabrics, patterns, and notions.
- How to read patterns and directions.
- Basic sewing terminology and measurements.
- How to operate your own portable sewing machine that you bring to class, but, you can still join, even if you do not have a machine of your own yet.
- To make fun gifts, do simple repairs on your garments or up-style and embellish your favorite jeans!

Saturdays: from 9:30 am, until 11:30 am.

Additional times by appointment

Class fee: $15.00 per class.
